

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Article I - Title

The Association shall be known as the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association, hereafter referred to as the Association.

Section 1. The definition of a veterinary technician herein refers to any person having graduated from an AVMA accredited Veterinary Technology Program and/or is appropriately currently credentialed in his/her state under that state's governing veterinary technician regulations by Veterinary Practice Act or if in a voluntary state, by the accrediting veterinary medical or veterinary technician association.

Section 2. The terms Licensed, Certified, or Registered Veterinary Technician will be used to identify any such person that has passed the Veterinary Technician National Exam (VTNE), any state mandated veterinary technician exam(s), and holds a current license, certificate, or registration in the United States.

Section 3. The term veterinary support staff refers to any other member of the veterinary health care team such as, but is not limited to, a veterinary assistant, veterinary receptionist, veterinary office manager, veterinary practice manager, kennel person, etc.

Section 4. The term DVM (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine) or VMD (Veterinary Medical Doctor) refers to any person having completed a doctorate in veterinary medicine and is licensed to practice veterinary medicine in the state of Wyoming.

Section 5. Within this document the term veterinary technician will refer to all persons covered in Article I Sections 1 and 2 above.

Article II - Purpose/Objective

The purposes or objectives of the Association are to promote

Section 1. the professional and educational advancement of veterinary technicians and veterinary support staff;

Section 2. and enhance the knowledge and skills of the veterinary technician and the veterinary support staff through continuing education programs and sponsored seminars;

Section 3. the interests of veterinary technicians and veterinary support staff through state, provincial, and federal legislation;

Section 4. and maintain the professional image and high ethical standards of the veterinary technician and the veterinary profession as set forth in the Veterinary Technician Code of Ethics by the National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America;

Section 5. progressive and humane medical care for all creatures;

Section 6. and maintain a cooperative professional relationship with the veterinary medical profession; and

Section 7. the rights and privileges of veterinary technicians in Wyoming, the nation, and wherever applicable.

Article III – Membership

Effective January 2017, all membership categories shall be biannual to correspond with the member's certification year or renewal of membership (Amendment H4).

Section 1. Active Membership Veterinary Technician:

Active members in this category shall be veterinary technicians in good standing as described in Article I of the Constitution:

A. Active Member: Certified Veterinary Technician (CVT): A current veterinary technician member of the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association that has successfully passed the VTNE, paid the current Wyoming VTA dues, met any continuing education hour requirements, and either graduated from an AVMA accredited Veterinary Technology Program or qualified as a grandfathered CVT to Wyoming per Article VI Section 2.F2f.

B. Active Member: Veterinary Technician (VT): A current veterinary technician member of the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association that has graduated from an AVMA accredited veterinary technology program, paid the current dues, and met any continuing education hour requirements, but has NOT YET successfully passed the VTNE.

C. Active Member: Veterinary Technician Student (VT Student): A currently enrolled student in an AVMA accredited veterinary technology program that wishes to maintain an individual active membership to support the association and enable this member to vote.

D. All active members shall have voting privileges.

E. Active members may be currently working in the profession or be on sabbatical as long as all active membership requirements are not allowed to lapse or become inactive.

Section 2. Active Membership Veterinary Assistant:

Active members in this category shall be veterinary assistants currently working in the veterinary profession. All active members shall have voting privileges.

Section 3. Associate Membership:

Associate members of the Association shall be those persons not described in the Active Membership categories, but who are interested in supporting and promoting the Association. Associate members shall not be eligible to serve as officers of the Association, shall not vote in Association affairs, but may, at the discretion of the Executive Board, serve on committees.

Section 4. Membership dues:

Membership to the above categories may be obtained after formal application and payment of dues are submitted to the Association for approval.

- A. Biannual dues are due by the 15th of January of the year corresponding to the members' initial membership (odd or even year).
- B. The fiscal year of the Association shall be January 1st through December 31st and dues paid at any time during the calendar year apply only to the calendar year and subsequent year in which they were paid to fulfill membership dues.
- C. Only active members in good standing may vote for officers or in other affairs of the Association.
- D. Membership dues shall be reviewed annually by the Board prior to the Annual Meeting and any proposed change shall be brought to the membership for vote.

Section 5. Revocation of Membership:

If, in the opinion of the Executive Board, a member of the Association (either active or associate) is believed to have participated in activities which grossly misrepresent or undermine the profession and/or the Association, said member shall be notified in writing of this belief and invited to a hearing of his/her views or rebuttal.

- A. The hearing shall be held by the Executive Board within a reasonable period of time following notification. At least 51% of the Executive Board must be present at the hearing.
- B. A simple majority vote (51%) of active members present by secret ballot will decide the revocation.

Article IV - Officers, Their Election and Duties

Section 1. The Officers of the Association:

These officers shall comprise the Executive Board of the Association: President, Past-President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, NAVTA (National Association of Veterinary Technicians in America) State Representative, and Member-at-Large.

- A. Each officer shall have one vote in Executive Board Meetings, the president voting only to break a tie. If two positions are combined, this dual position shall have only one vote (i.e. Secretary/Editor).

3. Other Executive Board positions may be held by veterinary assistants that are active members in good standing.

B. Nominations and Elections: Nominations for officers will be submitted by the nominating committee to the Board for review and balloting. Ballots will be sent to all voting members at least 14 days prior to the Annual Meeting and/or Election to the member's preferred method of contact (email or standard mail) as indicated on the member's annual application.

C. Terms of Office and Installation:

1. Terms of Office will be one year in length; each position will be open for nomination annually.
2. Newly elected officers will be installed at the January meeting of the year beginning their term. Between the election and the installation, outgoing officers will train new officers on duties and both sets of officers will attend board meetings to facilitate transition.
3. No term of office shall be held for more than three consecutive years.
4. Executive Board positions should be filled by residents of Wyoming unless otherwise stated in Article IV Section 2A above.

D. Vacancy: In the event of a vacancy the board shall nominate a person to fill the position, and upon acceptance, install said person for the remainder of the fiscal year.

E. Resignation Procedures: Any member of the Executive Board who wishes to resign his/her position must notify the Board in writing of his/her intention and the date which the resignation will be effective.

F. Financial: All Executive Board and Committee positions are voluntary. Reimbursements for expenses incurred are awarded based on pre-approved estimate, fund availability, and complete submission of receipts for expenses by vote of the Executive Board.

D. EASTERN WYOMING COLLEGE (EWC) VETERINARY TECHNOLOGY PROGRAM STUDENT CHAPTER

1. The purpose of this Chapter is to include all EWC VT Program students currently enrolled in a group membership to WyVTA. This group will then represent the only AVMA accredited VT program in the state of Wyoming and provide the students with an opportunity to hold a representative position on the WyVTA Executive Board and foster future veterinary technician involvement in an organization that represents their careers.
2. A representative should be elected from each class (freshman and sophomore) and these people will act as voting liaison for their respective class. Each representative will have one vote. The Student Representatives will receive their newsletters and communication via email.
3. The Annual Dues for the Student Chapter will be set at $50 for the entire chapter.
4. Students will receive their newsletters and communication via email.
5. Should an individual student wish to maintain his/her own voting privileges, he/she may choose to become an Active Member: VT Student (Article III).

E. NOMINATING COMMITTEE – The purposes of this committee are to:

1. be 3 members in good standing appointed by the President annually, no later than June 1, delegated to:
2. receive recommendations and nominations from the association membership;
3. nominate individuals to serve as members of the Executive Board;
4. verify membership status of nominees; and
5. present the slate of nominees for Executive Board position election to the Association membership for vote as stated under Article IV, Section 2B of these bylaws.

F. CERTIFICATION COMMITTEE – The purposes of this committee are to:

1. assist Certification/Membership in maintaining records of veterinary technicians certified in Wyoming by the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association; and
2. evaluate applicants for certification status using the following criteria. The applicant must:
  - a. be a graduate of an AVMA accredited program;
  - b. have successfully passed the Veterinary Technician National Exam (VTNE); The Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association will accept the AAVSB's passing score criteria set for the testing sequence in which the applicant completed the exam;
  - c. be a member in good standing of the Association;
  - d. provide proof of ten (10) hours of continuing education every two years; and
  - e. abide by the Association's Certification Standards set forth in Article III, Section 1A and NAVTA's Code of Ethics.
- f. On-the-job-trained technicians will be 'grandfathered' for two years (through January 2006 per agreement with NAVTA providing they qualify to sit for the VTNE exam including all these criteria:

G. VTNE (Veterinary Technician National Exam) COMMITTEE – The purposes of this committee are

  - a. Proof of a high school diploma or GED;
  - b. Verifiable proof of having worked in the capacity of a full-time veterinary technician for three years;
  - c. Three letters of recommendation from veterinary professionals and/or co-workers;
  - d. Five hours of continuing education in the last five years; and
  - e. College transcripts if available.

H. Amendments:

1. Revision of the Constitution and Bylaws September 6, 2014

Adopted by the verified active membership in attendance and in majority at the Fall CE Seminar in Casper, Wyoming at the Ramkota Inn on September 6, 2014 in accordance with Article V – Amendments of the 2003 WyVTA Constitution and Bylaws as follows: Revised Constitution and Bylaws were published as a single proposed amendment to vote to adopt due to the numerous minor corrections and significant corrections to articles governing committees and sent with a cover letter of explanation on August 4, 2014 to all active members on record. The elected 2014 Wyoming Veterinary Technician Executive Board verified that the members present were ratified and the vote was unanimous to approve acceptance of the 2014-0906 Constitution and Bylaws revision for the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association.

2. Dissolution Statement: As required by the Internal Revenue Service as part of the Federal Tax Exempt 501(c)(3) Status reinstated retroactively to May 15, 2010 on July 23, 2015, the following dissolution statement reads:

Upon dissolution of the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association, an exempt organization described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and as a Public Charity Status 509(a)(2), the remaining assets will be distributed to one or more qualified exempt organization(s) under the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code and used exclusively for exempt purposes. The Association will see that any outstanding bills be finalized and paid, followed by distribution of the remaining assets to the following organizations, the amount to each being determined by a majority of the Executive Board, but to completely deplete the Association's coffers. Dissolution assets must be disbursed to organizations that will ensure funds will be distributed to Wyoming residents and their pets and/or Wyoming resident students for scholarships to attend AVMA accredited programs of veterinary technology as follows:

- a. The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) – Animal Poison Control Center (APCC) – toward the care of any Wyoming resident's pet in an APCC consultation.
- b. The American Veterinary Medical Foundation (AVMF) – toward scholarship funds for any Wyoming resident that applies for the scholarship and qualifies as a student in good standing. The AVMF's role will be limited to dispersing funds as a scholarship for a Wyoming resident who is attending an AVMA accredited veterinary technician school. The model for the scholarship will be at the discretion of the AVMF. If there are insufficient funds to support a scholarship, then AVMF will disperse remaining funds through AVMF's Veterinary Care Charitable Fund to assist Wyoming veterinary clinics (AVMA members) in providing charitable health care to pets and pet owners in Wyoming. All funds received and dispersed must follow the rules set forward by the IRS and will include modest administrative fees as determined by the AVMF. Any assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

3. Treasury Forms 2015:

- a. As required by the Internal Revenue Service as part of the reinstatement of Federal Tax Exempt 501(c)(3) Status retroactively to May 15, 2010 on July 23, 2015, the Treasurer will be required to submit annually Form 990, or any other documentation and/or fees required by the IRS to maintain this Federal Tax Exempt Status and charitable funding documentation.

- b. As required by the Wyoming Secretary of State, any documentation and/or fees including physical office address or mailing address change, email, or other contact information change, or any other material deemed necessary by the Secretary of State to maintain Nonprofit Corporation Standing in the state of Wyoming.
- 4. Biannual Membership and Dues Revision: Effective January 2017, all membership categories shall be biannual to correspond with the member's certification year or renewal of membership. Those members whose certification renews in 2018 shall pay an annual membership fee for 2017, then biannual membership in 2018 with renewal of membership and certification. All other members shall begin biannual membership effective January 1, 2017.
- 5. Creation of Board Position: Membership/Certification: Effective January 2018, said board position is created to enable full focus on this important aspect of the Wyoming Veterinary Technician Association – membership of veterinary professional support staff and credentialing of eligible veterinary technicians; see Article IV; Section 2G7. Previous Section 7 (Member-At-Large) moved to Article IV; Section 2G8 per position and duties.
- 6. Revision of Article IV Positions: President (Section 2G1k addition); Past President (Section 2G2 revision and expansion); Treasurer (Section 2G5 removal of membership chair position statement) by tallied membership vote via SurveyMonkey (4 surveys to complete majority vote, recorded results in January 2019 Newsletter).
- 7. Revision of Article VI, Section 2B and 2F: Change of Treasurer to Membership/Certification position and Section 2E Addition of new #1 stating number of persons on the committee and assignment method and realignment of purposes for the Nominating Committee. Effective September 14, 2019.

Policies & Protocols:

Policies and Protocols are written, approved, and enacted by the Executive Board. They may be revised or rescinded at such time as the seated Executive Board deems fit. Policies and Procedures shall not cover any item in the Constitution and Bylaws, but are to be used to aid the Association in conducting professional business.

Social Media Policy (Approved by the 2018 WyVTA Board on June 3, 2018):

The WyVTA will implement the following guidelines for social media platforms, effective immediately:

- All Facebook posts will be reviewed by administrators before being published to the page.
- Submissions to the newsletter and website will be free of charge to WyVTA and WyVMA members in good standing. Fees charged for submissions from non-members will be on a case-by-case basis.
- WyVTA reserves the right to edit submissions for grammar and relevant content with final draft to be accepted by the party requesting the post. This stands for all social media platforms.
- Posts on all platforms will be available for approximately 60 days.
